

CHAP. 480. to the aforesaid collection, make affidavit, before some justice of the peace for Anne Arundel county, that the same remains unpaid, and that he has not received any security or satisfaction for the same, or any part thereof, more than the credits allowed thereon.

In force. SEC. 3. And be it enacted, That this act shall continue in force for one year, and no longer.

CHAPTER 480.

Passed
March 9, 1850. A further supplement to the act entitled, an act for the encouragement of Primary Schools in Prince George's county, passed at December Session, eighteen hundred and thirty-eight, chapter sixty-one.

Trustees—
How appointed SECTION 1. Be it enacted by the General Assembly of Maryland, That the taxable inhabitants of the respective school districts and the patrons of the schools established under the act to which this is a supplement, shall meet, annually, on the first Saturday in May, at the school house within their respective school districts, and appoint three competent persons, taxable inhabitants or patrons, to serve as trustees for their respective schools, whose duty it shall be to visit said schools quarterly, or oftener, if necessary, to supervise the manner in which said schools are conducted, to appoint teachers, and remove any such who may prove to be incompetent, as now provided for by law, and to report, at least once a year, to the said general board of trustees, the manner in which said teachers have conducted said schools, the number of scholars attending the same, and the punctuality and competence with which said teachers have discharged their duties, and said local trustees shall conduct all examinations of the scholars in said schools, whenever held, and report their progress to the said general board of trustees.

General board SEC. 2. And be it enacted, That at their levy laying term in this present year, and annually thereafter, the Levy Court of Prince George's county, shall be and they are hereby authorised and required, to appoint eight discreet, sensible and prudent citizens thereof, one from each election district, members of the general board of trustees for primary schools of said county, and each member of said board of trustees shall be