

defendant in said writ of execution, that then, and in such case, it shall and may be lawful for the securities, or either of them, of said constable, on the bond which would be liable under said writ of fieri facias, to return said writ of fieri facias to the justice of the peace issuing the same, or any other justice of the peace of the same county, in case the justice issuing the same shall have died, or is not in office, with the endorsement of the fact thereon, and that then the justice of the peace to whom said warrant shall be returned, shall have power and authority to issue another fieri facias, or any other species of execution, now allowed by law, upon having furnished to him a copy of the judgment upon which the said fieri facias was issued, in case he was not the magistrate who rendered said judgment.

CHAPTER 492.

An act to Incorporate a Company to make a Turnpike Road from the northern terminus of the Baltimore and Harford Turnpike Road, to the Town of Bel-Air, in Harford County. Passed Mar. 9, 1850

SECTION 1. Be it enacted by the General Assembly of Maryland, That a company shall be incorporated to make a turnpike road from the northern terminus of the Baltimore and Harford Turnpike Road to the town of Bel-Air.

SEC. 2. And be it enacted, That subscription books shall be opened at Bel-Air, and the city of Baltimore, on or before the first day of May next, for a capital stock for said company, of fifteen thousand dollars in shares of twenty-five dollars each, under the direction of the following commissioners, namely: Thomas A. Hays, Alexander Norris, William Lee Amos, James M. McCormick, Harry D. Gough, Charles B. Green, David Lee Maulsby, William Whitelock, John W. Richardson, and—Starr.

SEC. 3. And be it enacted, That when two hundred shares of said stock shall have been subscribed, the commissioners shall give twenty days notice of the time and place appointed for the subscribers to meet to organize said institution and choose, by plurality of votes by ballot, a president and six managers, any four of whom to be a quorum, a treasurer, and such other
