

PHILIP F. THOMAS, ESQUIRE, GOVERNOR. 1849.

CHAPTER 494.

CHAP. 495

An act to establish a Public Road, in Prince George's County. Passed March 9, 1850.

Be it enacted by the General Assembly of Maryland, Commissioners to lay out road
That George A. Digges, Robert Clarke, and Israel M. Jackson, of Prince George's county, be and they are hereby appointed commissioners to lay out and establish a road, not exceeding thirty feet in width, commencing for the same at the Montgomery county line, near the farm of John Davis, and running thence with the road now used to the Sligo mills, and from said mills with the road now running through the lands of Israel M. Jackson, to the line of the District of Columbia, and when said road is thus laid out and established, and accepted by the levy court of said county, if in their opinion the making of said road a public road will be a public convenience, and if the said road is made a public road free from all expense to said county, it shall be considered and esteemed, and shall thereafter be put upon the same footing with other public roads in said county.

CHAPTER 495.

An act to authorise Joseph W. Patterson, guardian of certain minors, to erect improvements on their property, at their expense. Passed March 9, 1850

Be it enacted by the General Assembly of Maryland, Guardian may improve
That Joseph W. Patterson, of the city of Baltimore, guardian to Joseph W. P. Nicols, James Nicols, and Noel Nicols, of said city, minors, be and he is hereby authorised to cause to be erected a back building to the dwelling house, late the residence of their father, Charles Nicols, now deceased, situate on the south side of Lexington street, between Charles and Saint Paul's streets, in the said city, and that the said Joseph W. Patterson shall be allowed, out of the income of the said minors, and not otherwise, the actual cost of the said back building, not exceeding the sum of two thousand five hundred dollars, in the settlement of his accounts as such guardian, before the Orphans court for Baltimore county; provided, he shall furnish Proviso.