

trusted to their care, the company shall hold themselves liable, the danger of the sea and fire alone excepted, the said company to receive or allow their agents such compensation, or such commission on purchases or sales as is usual to allow, or to be received in such cases. CHAP. 77.

SEC. 10. And be it enacted, That said company shall have full power to transport passengers and freight, by the way of the Chesapeake and Delaware Canal, or other ways, to and from the cities of Baltimore and Philadelphia, respectively; provided, said freight and said passengers do not interfere with, or in any manner prevent said company's boats from stopping at the various stopping places called for in section eight of this act. To transport passengers, &c
Proviso

SEC. 11. And be it enacted, That nothing in this act shall be so construed as to authorise the said company to issue any note, token, scrip or device, or other evidence of debt to be used as a currency. Banking forbid

SEC. 12. And be it enacted, That this act of incorporation shall go into effect immediately after its passage, and shall continue in force until the year eighteen hundred and seventy, and until the end of the next session of the General Assembly thereafter. In force.

SEC. 13. And be it enacted, That all the powers, rights and privileges granted to said company by the different sections of this act may be modified or repealed by the Legislature of this State, at pleasure. Right reserved

CHAPTER 77.

An act to allow Thomas Sutton, late Sheriff of Queen Anne's County, further time to complete his collections. Passed
Feb. 12, 1850

Be it enacted by the General Assembly of Maryland, That Thomas Sutton, late sheriff of Queen Anne's county, and his deputies, or any agent by him to be appointed, be and they are hereby authorised and empowered, to collect and receive all and every balance or amount of officer's fees, fines, and forfeitures, and all other sums that may be due and owing to the said Sutton, as sheriff as aforesaid, in the same manner, and to the same extent, as if the term of office of the said Sutton, as sheriff as aforesaid, had not expired; pro- Authority to collect.