

sum or sums of money as they may conceive to be necessary, at an interest not exceeding six per centum per annum, in anticipation of the levies to be made under this law, which said loan or loans shall be appropriated and applied by them to the erection of said jail, and to insure the repayment of the said sum or sums of money, with interest thereon, the said commissioners shall be and they are hereby authorised to assign and transfer to the lender or lenders thereof, any part or parts of the before mentioned taxes, to be annually collected as aforesaid, which lender or lenders, shall in such case, have all the right and privileges in enforcing the payment to them of the said taxes, that the commissioners should have had, if such transfer had not been made.

SEC. 5. And be it enacted, That in case any of the commissioners herein named, and hereby empowered to cause the said new jail to be erected, shall refuse, die, remove or become incapable to act, the residue, or a majority of them, shall fill up the vacancy or vacancies, and so, as often as may be, to carry this act into effect.

Vacancies—
how filled

SEC. 6. And be it enacted, That the commissioners of Allegany county, are hereby authorised, directed and required, to allow to the commissioners appointed by this act, who shall attend to the duties assigned them, such reasonable compensations as they, or either of them, may be entitled for punctual and extraordinary attention, and also to levy the same for collection, as other charges are levied.

Compensation

SEC. 7. And be it enacted, That all acts or parts of acts repugnant hereto, or inconsistent herewith, are hereby repealed and abrogated.

Inconsistent
acts repealed.

CHAPTER 503.

An act to divorce Rachel Mousley, of Cecil County, from her husband, John Mousley. Passed Mar. 9, 1850.

SECTION 1. Be it enacted by the General Assembly of Maryland, That the marriage contract heretofore had and solemnised between Rachel Mousley, of Cecil county, and John Mousley, be and the same is hereby declared to be, henceforth and forever, null and void, and the said Rachel Mousley and John Mousley, are hereby declared to be divorced, a vinculo matrimonii.

Divorced