

PHILIP F. THOMAS, ESQUIRE, GOVERNOR. 1849.

first day of the term next, succeeding that to which such application shall be made, judgment shall be rendered for the opposite party, in the same manner as if the appeal were heard and determined in his favor. CHAP. 518.

CHAPTER 518.

An act for the removal of causes for trial in the several County Courts, of this State. Passed March 7, 1850.

SECTION 1. Be it enacted by the General Assembly of Maryland, That in any suit or action of law now pending, or hereafter to be commenced or instituted, in any county courts of this State, or in the court of Howard District, the judges thereof, upon suggestion in writing, by either of the parties thereto or their attorneys, supported by affidavit or other proper evidence, either before or after issue joined in the said cause, that a fair and impartial trial cannot be had in the county courts of the county, or in the court of Howard district, where such writ or action may be depending, shall and may order and direct the record of their proceedings in such suit or action, to be transmitted to the judges of any county court of any adjoining judicial district for trial, and the judges of such county court, to whom the said record may be transmitted, shall hear and determine the same in like manner and to the same extent as if such suit or action had been originally instituted therein.

SEC. 2. And be it enacted, That the provisions of this act shall be extended to all cases of issues from chancery or from the orphan's courts, to any county court of this State, or to Howard district court, issues framed upon allegations filed by his creditors, against any insolvent petitioner. Extended to issues from orphans and from chancery court

SEC. 3. And be it enacted, That this act shall take effect from and after the passage thereof. In force.