

CHAP. 84. shall be able and liable to sue and be sued, in any court of law or equity, and may have and use a common seal, and the same at their pleasure, alter or renew and shall have power to purchase, have, hold and enjoy to them and their successors, such piece or parcel of land as the said Weaver may be willing to sell for a cemetery, and such other pieces or parcels of land adjoining thereto, as they may from time to time, acquire by purchase or otherwise; provided, the area of the whole shall not exceed fifty acres, for the purpose of establishing, maintaining and improving a public cemetery, which is hereby declared to be the only object for which said corporation is created, with authority to the said corporation to receive gifts and bequests for the purpose of ornamenting and improving said cemetery, and to hold such personal property as may be requisite to carry out the object of this act.

Proviso.

Directors—how and when elected.

SEC. 2. And be it enacted, That the affairs of said corporation shall be conducted by five directors, who shall be proprietors of lots, and who shall be elected by a majority of the votes of the proprietors, on the first Monday of January in each year, after the first election hereinafter provided for, and who shall remain in office one year, and until successors be elected: in all elections and in the decision of all questions that may arise in the general meetings of the proprietors under this act, each proprietor of a lot, his or her heirs, or legal representative or representatives shall be entitled to one vote for each and every lot held by him, her, or them, respectively, and may vote in person or by proxy, and the presence of a majority in interest, in person or by proxy, shall be necessary to the transaction of business, but a smaller number may adjourn from time to time.

Corporate
powers.

SEC. 3. And be it enacted, That the directors, a majority of whom shall constitute a quorum for the transaction of business, shall choose from their own body a President, and in his absence a President pro tempore, they shall have power to fill vacancies in their own body, to call special meetings of the proprietors, of which ten days previous notice shall be given by written notice, posted at some public place in Weaverton, or by such other mode as the proprietors in general meeting, may direct; they shall have power to lay out, inclose and ornament their grounds, to erect such buildings as they may deem necessary, to lay out and dispose of burial lots, to set apart a lot or lots, in which strangers and such other persons as they may admit, may be in interest, to appoint a secretary and all other necessary officers and agents, and fix their several duties and com-