

son on behalf of the said county, and for the mayor CHAP. 541. and city council of Baltimore to appoint one suitable and proper person on behalf of the city, to act as referees and determine upon the price to be paid by the said city, to the said commissioners, for the interest of the said county in the said joint property, and in case of disagreement between the said referees the Chancellor of the State of Maryland shall appoint a third suitable and proper person, who shall also act as referee in the matter, and the decision of any two of the said referees shall be binding both on the city and county aforesaid, and final; and the said referees shall receive such compensation for their services, to be paid in equal proportions by the said city and county, as the said commissioners and the said mayor and city council shall deem fit and reasonable.

SEC. 13. And be it enacted, That this act shall be in force in force from and after the passage thereof.

CHAPTER 541.

An act to incorporate the Central Building Association. Passed March 8, 1850.

WHEREAS, Henry L. Buchler, John Meisner, Theodore Preamble.
Geilfus, John Kraft, Jacob Kinzle, John Lipfel, John Dressel, John Glazer, Lewis Lindner, Frederick Friedman, and others, of the city of Baltimore, have formed themselves into an association, under the name and style of the Central Building Association; and whereas, the object of the said association is to encourage economy and frugality, whereby the members thereof may, in an easy and secure manner, accumulate a sum sufficient to build or purchase a domicile for their families—Therefore,

SECTION 1. Be it enacted by the General Assembly of Incorporated;
Maryland, That the aforesaid members of said associa- &c. tion, as well as those who hereafter, according to the constitution and bye-laws of said association, shall become members thereof, be and they are hereby created and made a body politic and corporate, by the name and style mentioned in the preamble to this act, and by its name shall have succession for twenty years, and shall be capable by law to hold and dispose of property,