

PHILIP F. THOMAS, ESQUIRE, GOVERNOR. 1849.

SEC. 2. And be it enacted, That William Temple, senior, James H. Temple, John W. Downes, of Queen Anne's county, and John W. Temple, Thomas Dawson, of Caroline county, be and they are hereby appointed commissioners to view and lay out said road, if in their judgments, it will be for the public convenience and private good.

SEC. 3. And be it enacted, That if the said commissioners, or a majority of them, shall agree to the change of said road, then they shall cause a plat of the old road, and also of the place where the new one is to be located, to be made out, and when they, the said commissioners, or a majority of them, shall agree that the new road is done, and is in good and sufficient order for the use of the public, then they shall return the said plat, with their certificate of the whole proceedings, to the commissioners of Caroline county, who shall cause the same to be recorded amongst the records of the said county, and from that time the said new road shall be kept in repair as the old road has heretofore been kept.

SEC. 4. And be it enacted, That the road so laid out and returned as aforesaid, the said new road, shall be the division line between the counties of Caroline and Queen Anne's, any law, usage, or custom to the contrary notwithstanding.

To cause plat to be made out

Dividing line

CHAPTER 447.

An act entitled an act to divorce Mary Ann Riley, from her husband, Philip Riley. Passed Mar. 7, 1850.

Be it enacted by the General Assembly of Maryland, That Mary Ann Riley, be and she is hereby divorced, a vinculo matrimonii, from her husband, Philip Riley.