

CHAPTER 561. CREAT. 561

1891. The Board of Directors of the Baltimore and Ohio Railroad Company, created by the act of the General Assembly of Maryland, passed on the 10th day of December, 1890, a resolution to the effect that the annual meeting of the said company should be held on the 1st day of October, in every year in the city of Baltimore, instead of on the second Monday of October, as is provided in the act to which this is a supplement, and that the general meeting of the stockholders of said company to be held annually, shall be held at the time and place herein appointed for the election of the said directors.

Time of meet- ing changed

1891. The Board of Directors of the Baltimore and Ohio Railroad Company, shall be chosen annually on the third Monday of October, in every year in the city of Baltimore, instead of on the second Monday of October, as is provided in the act to which this is a supplement, and that the general meeting of the stockholders of said company to be held annually, shall be held at the time and place herein appointed for the election of the said directors.

1891. The Board of Directors of the Baltimore and Ohio Railroad Company, shall be chosen annually on the third Monday of October, in every year in the city of Baltimore, instead of on the second Monday of October, as is provided in the act to which this is a supplement, and that the general meeting of the stockholders of said company to be held annually, shall be held at the time and place herein appointed for the election of the said directors.

CHAPTER 562

1891. The Board of Directors of the Baltimore and Ohio Railroad Company, shall be chosen annually on the third Monday of October, in every year in the city of Baltimore, instead of on the second Monday of October, as is provided in the act to which this is a supplement, and that the general meeting of the stockholders of said company to be held annually, shall be held at the time and place herein appointed for the election of the said directors.

1891. The Board of Directors of the Baltimore and Ohio Railroad Company, shall be chosen annually on the third Monday of October, in every year in the city of Baltimore, instead of on the second Monday of October, as is provided in the act to which this is a supplement, and that the general meeting of the stockholders of said company to be held annually, shall be held at the time and place herein appointed for the election of the said directors.

1891. The Board of Directors of the Baltimore and Ohio Railroad Company, shall be chosen annually on the third Monday of October, in every year in the city of Baltimore, instead of on the second Monday of October, as is provided in the act to which this is a supplement, and that the general meeting of the stockholders of said company to be held annually, shall be held at the time and place herein appointed for the election of the said directors.

1891. The Board of Directors of the Baltimore and Ohio Railroad Company, shall be chosen annually on the third Monday of October, in every year in the city of Baltimore, instead of on the second Monday of October, as is provided in the act to which this is a supplement, and that the general meeting of the stockholders of said company to be held annually, shall be held at the time and place herein appointed for the election of the said directors.

and
y as y.
hat
Pro
ASSN
Lich
occ-
sias
the
the 18-
Re
the T
the st
pense
the E olde ni a
of a
R
the sum
serv
pres
at-A
lat
ou
old ste ste