

and in order to meet all expenses which may be incurred in the performance of these duties, and in the maintenance of the establishment, the said commissioners shall have, in virtue of this act, full power and authority, and they are hereby required, to levy, from time to time, on the assessable property of said county, such sum or sums of money, as they may deem necessary to be levied, by instalments of one, two, and three years; and it shall be incumbent upon said commissioners to proceed to the discharge of the various duties imposed by this act, as soon as the public convenience, in their judgment, will permit.

SEC. 2. And be it enacted, That after the erection of said Alms-house, and the same shall have been prepared for use, the commissioners aforesaid shall invite those indigent persons who receive pensions by county assessments, to relinquish the same, and repair to the protection which may be afforded by the Alms-house hereby intended to be established; and if such persons, when so invited, shall refuse or neglect to comply with such invitation, then it shall and may be lawful for the commissioners aforesaid, to levy such sums of money as they may deem necessary for the support of such pensioner; provided, said pensioner has been a resident of Allegany county for two years preceding the date at which said levy shall be made.

CHAPTER 100.

An act supplementary to an act concerning Crimes and Punishments, passed at December Session, eighteen hundred and thirty-five, chapter two hundred. Passed Feb 15, 1850.

Be it enacted by the General Assembly of Maryland, Repealed.
That so much of the fourth section of an act concerning crimes and punishments, passed at December session, eighteen hundred and thirty-five, chapter two hundred, as limits the discretion of the Baltimore city court to the sum of thirty dollars, be and the same is hereby repealed.