

Jane A. Evans, his wife, but not acknowledged by the said Jane A. Evans according to the laws of Maryland, be and the same is hereby made good and valid to convey the real estate therein mentioned and described to all intents and purposes as if the same had been originally executed, and acknowledged, and recorded in strict conformity to the provisions of the laws in force in this State, in such cases made and provided, and that the same be recorded in one of the land record books of Cecil county, as the deed of the said grantors.

CHAPTER 13.

An act entitled, an act to authorise George Francis White, trustee in place of Caleb White, under the will of George Barber, late of the City of Annapolis, to sell certain stock therein mentioned.

WHEREAS, a certain George Barber, late of Annapolis city, deceased, did, by his last will and testament, bequeath certain State stock to Caleb White, in trust for the maintenance of a certain George A. Barber, during his life, and after his death, to be divided among his children; and whereas, the said Caleb White has since died, and George Francis White has been substituted in his place, as trustee for the aforesaid purposes; and whereas, it is represented that it would be for the benefit of all parties concerned, that a sale and re-investment of the said stock should be made—Therefore,

Be it enacted by the General Assembly of Maryland, That George Francis White, appointed trustee in place of Caleb White, deceased, to carry out the trusts of the will of George Barber, late of Annapolis city, in favor of George A. Barber, and his children, be and he is hereby authorised to sell the State stock bequeathed by the said will to the said Caleb White, in trust for the said George A. Barber, and his children, and to invest the same, preserving the trusts on real estate; provided however, that no such investment shall be valid, unless sanctioned by the Orphans court of Anne Arundel county.
