

1812.

He shall have power to collect fees put into his hands before a certain date by execution.

When power of execution vested by this act shall cease.

in favour of any attorney, officer or other person against the aforesaid Joseph Ennalls, for fees put in his hands for collection, in the year eighteen hundred and ten.

5. AND BE IT ENACTED, That the said Joseph Ennalls shall have full power and authority to collect by execution, all fees which had been put into his hands for collection by the said officers and attorneys, on or before the tenth day of June eighteen hundred and ten.

6. AND BE IT ENACTED, That the power of executing under the provisions of this act shall be operative until the first day of January eighteen hundred and thirteen; any law, usage or custom to the contrary notwithstanding.

CHAPTER 153.

Passed, Jan. 4, 1812,

An act to provide for the appointment of Commissioners for the regulation and improvement of Salisbury, in Somerset and Worcester counties.

Preamble.

WHEREAS, it is represented to this General Assembly, that it would greatly contribute to the advantage and improvement of Salisbury, in Somerset and Worcester counties, that the same should be placed under the care and regulation of certain commissioners, to be elected by the citizens thereof, and vested with sufficient powers to forward and effect the purposes intended:—Therefore,

Election of commissioners, and what description of persons shall be entitled to vote.

BE IT ENACTED by the General Assembly of Maryland, That five judicious and discreet persons, residing in the said town, or within three miles thereof, and possessed of landed property within the said town in his own right, or in right of his wife, of the value of one hundred dollars, shall be elected by ballot, on the second Monday in March, in the year eighteen hundred and twelve, at the house of Ann Chaille, in the said town, by the free white male inhabitants thereof, above the age of one-and-twenty years, and having resided within the limits of the said town for the space of one year next preceding the election, and having property in possession of the value of thirty dollars, and by such other persons as are hereinafter authorised to vote at such election; and the five persons who shall appear to have the greatest number of votes at the close of the election, shall be declared to