

south side of said street, bounded on the east by Franklin lane, and on the west by Light street; and shall extend, construct and fill into the Basin of Baltimore city, a block slip or wharf, extending from the south side thereof midway between Franklin lane and Light street, in a direct line, until the said slip would reach the south side of Camden street extended; which said wharf shall be of the width of two hundred and forty feet, and shall be subject to be disposed of and sold in the manner herein after provided for by the said commissioners.

1812.

3. AND BE IT ENACTED, That the said commissioners or a majority of them shall, as soon as conveniently may be after the passage of this act, ascertain and determine what sum of money shall be necessary to execute the work by this act required to be performed, and shall make a statement thereof, under their hands and seals, and deliver the same to the assessors herein after appointed.

Commissioners shall ascertain the sum necessary to execute the work required, and deliver a statement to the assessors.

4. AND BE IT ENACTED, That each of the said commissioners shall receive as a compensation for his services in carrying into effect the provisions of this act, the sum of two dollars for each and every day he shall be so employed.

Commissioners' compensation.

5. AND BE IT ENACTED, That in case any of the said commissioners should die, refuse to act or remove out of the county before the discharge of the duties imposed on them by this act, it shall and may be lawful to and for the surviving or remaining commissioners, to appoint a commissioner or commissioners, as the case may be, in his or their stead, each of whom shall be vested with the same powers, required to discharge the same duties, and receive the same compensation that any commissioner named in this act is.

Commissioners may supply vacancies occasioned by death or otherwise.

6. AND BE IT ENACTED, That [John Stricker,*] William Steuart, George Warner, Richard Frisby, Nicholas R. Moore, David Williamson, Alexander McDonald, David Winchester, Andrew Ellicott, Thomas Ellicott, and Francis Hollingsworth be, and they are hereby appointed assessors, to value and ascertain the damage which may be sustained by, and the benefits which may accrue to such persons who shall sustain damage from, or receive benefits by the opening and extending of the said street; who shall, before they act as such, take and subscribe the following oath or affirmation, as the case may be, viz. I. A. B.

Assessors appointed—they shall take an oath, and may supply vacancies occurring in their own body—their compensation.

(* NOTE BY THE PRINTER—This name is inserted in the original bill passed by the Senate and House of Delegates, but omitted (I presume by a mistake of the transcriber) in the engrossed bill.)