provisions of the act of assembly, passed at November session eighteen hundred and five, entitled, " An act for the relief of sundry insolvent debtors," and its several supplements, in the same manner, and upon the same terms and conditions as if the said Dominick Galt and John Thomas had obtained the assent of so many of their creditors, as have due to them two thirds in amount, of the debts owing by the said Dominick Galt and John Thomas.

1811.

<center>—◇◁◆▷◇—</center>

CHAPTER 23.

An Act to empower Rebecca Candler and John Candler, administrators of William Candler, late sheriff and collector of Montgomery county, to collect fees and county tax, put into his hands for collection during his life time.

Passed Dec. 27, 1811.

WHEREAS, Rebecca Candler and John Candler, administrators of William Candler, late sheriff and collector of Montgomery county, have represented to this General Assembly, that the said William Candler departed this life on the seventh day of August, eighteen hundred and ten, and that previous to his death, he received from the several officers, their fees for collection, that he was appointed collector of the county tax, for the year eighteen hundred and ten, and that but a small proportion of either the fees or county tax collected by him in his life time, or have been collected by them since his death; and praying an act may pass authorising them or any person employed by them, to collect the said fees and county tax, in the same manner as the said sheriff and collector could have done ; and the prayer of the petitioners appearing reasonable : Therefore,

Preamble.

BE IT ENACTED by the General Assembly of Maryland, That Rebecca and John Candler, or any person employed by them, be, and they are hereby authorised and empowered, at any time previous to the first of January eighteen hundred and thirteen, to proceed and collect the said fees and county tax, for the year eighteen hundred and ten, by execution, if necessary, in the same manner as the said William Candler could have done.

Authorising them to collect fees and county tax.