

1812.
~

state of Maryland with good and sufficient security, to be approved of by the orphans' court of Cecil county, and in such penalty as the said court shall adjudge proper, conditioned for the payment to all the heirs at law aforesaid, as they shall severally arrive at lawful age, of such part or portion of the money, with interest thereon arising from the sale of the aforesaid one undivided half part or moiety of a ware-house and wharf, situated as aforesaid, as may by law be due and payable to them; which bond shall be recorded in the office of the register of wills for the county aforesaid; upon an attested copy of which, under the seal of office, any suit or suits may be brought for the non-performance of the condition of said bond, by any person or persons interested in the same.

CHAPTER 189.

A supplement to the act entitled, "An act concerning the Chancery court."

Passed, Jan. 7, 1812.

BE IT ENACTED by the General Assembly of Maryland, That every respondent in any case now depending, or which may hereafter be brought in the chancery court of this state, shall have all the benefits and advantages which are given to complainants by the first section of the act to which this is a supplement, passed at November session eighteen hundred and six.

Respondents shall have all the benefits and advantages now given to complainants.

CHAPTER 190.

An act to make public a road leading from Thomas Kell's farm in Baltimore county to David Lee's mill, on the little falls of Gunpowder River.

Passed Jan. 7, 1812.

BE IT ENACTED by the General Assembly of Maryland, That such part of the road formerly opened as the road from Baltimore to Belle-Air, which passes from Thomas Kell's farm to a small run or field northward of William Dimmitt's house be, and the same is hereby declared to be a public highway; Provided, the owners of the land over which an extension of said road shall pass, do open, clear out, make and extend the same from the place abovementioned, on as straight a course as the ground will admit, to the fording place on the little falls aforesaid, at David Lee's mill, the said extension to be approved by commissioners hereby appointed to view the same.

A certain part of said road declared public.

Proviso.