

1811.

and provisions of the said act and supplements, notwithstanding the execution of a certain deed of trust by the said Lemuel Warfield to Lewis Pascault and Jeremiah Sullivan, dated the twenty-seventh day of February eighteen hundred and eleven.

CHAPTER 44.

Passed Dec-27, 1811.

An act for the relief of Edward B. Lowry, of the city of Baltimore.

Benefit of the
insolvent laws granted.

BE IT ENACTED by the General Assembly of Maryland, That the judges of Baltimore county court, be, and they are hereby authorised and directed to extend to Edward B. Lowry, of the city of Baltimore, the benefit of the act of assembly, passed at November session eighteen hundred and five, entitled, "An act for the relief of sundry insolvent debtors," and the several supplements thereto, without requiring the said Edward B. Lowry to produce the assent in writing, of two thirds of his creditors, as is prescribed by the provisions of the said act and supplements.

CHAPTER 45.

Passed Dec 27, 1811.

An act for the benefit of the representatives of Henry Charles, late of Dorchester county, deceased.

Preamble.

WHEREAS, It is represented to this General Assembly, by the petition of a number of persons nearest of kin to the said representatives, praying that a law may pass empowering the orphans' court of Dorchester county to appoint some person or persons to make sale of the following tracts of land, by the names of Brown's Chance, and part of a tract of land called Brown's Purchase, containing one hundred and eleven acres and one half acre of land, more or less; the said lands lying and being in Caroline county, state of Maryland, belonging to the heirs of the deceased. And whereas, It is represented that the said lands are of no great value, and much out of repair; and that in consequence of the deceased leaving nine children, which are all minors, the lands will not bear a division, and that the rents of said lands will not repair the houses on the same: Therefore,

Orphans' court authorised to

BE IT ENACTED by the General Assembly of Maryland, That the orphans' court of Dorchester