

or reject the same or any part thereof; and the levy court shall levy on the assessable property of Prince George's county the expense of the commissioners for viewing and surveying said road; and if the levy court shall confirm the said road agreeable to the return of the commissioners, and cause the same to be recorded, the levy court shall then appoint a supervisor or supervisors to clear and open said road, not exceeding thirty feet in width; and may levy the expense of said road upon the assessable property of Prince George's county, or should the levy court be of opinion that said road is not of public utility, but is only calculated to serve private individuals, in that case the court shall grant said road on the application of the petitioners, they paying all damage and expense of said road, and the levy court shall thereupon confirm the said road, and have it recorded, and it shall then be kept open and repaired as other public roads are in Prince George's county.

AND BE IT ENACTED, That if the person or persons over whose land the said road shall pass, shall think himself, herself or themselves aggrieved by the valuation or assessment of damages of the commissioners aforesaid, then the person or persons so aggrieved may apply to a justice of the peace of said county, to issue his warrant, directed to a constable, commanding him to summon five freeholders to appear on the premises on a day to be mentioned in the warrant, to assess and value the damages which the party or parties may sustain by the road passing over his or her land, which assessment and valuation of damages shall be final and conclusive; and which damages shall be paid or secured to be paid to the person or persons entitled to receive the same, before the commissioners shall proceed to lay out said road; Provided, The said road shall not pass through the yard, garden, orchard or meadow of any person or persons, without his, her or their consent.

Persons aggrieved may apply to a justice of the peace—he shall summon a jury—their duties, &c.
