

CHAP. 119. Delegates, and the public documents of the present session of the General Assembly, ten thousand dollars. For the expense of filing and recording in the office of the Clerk of the Court of Appeals, the laws and resolutions of the present session of the General Assembly, five hundred dollars. For the expense of preparing indexes to the laws of the present session, and to the journals and documents of the Senate and House of Delegates, four hundred and fifty dollars. For the purchase of the necessary fuel and lights for the use of the Senate and House of Delegates, and for the public offices at the seat of Government, sixteen hundred dollars. For the purchase of the necessary stationery of all kinds, for the use of the Senate and House of Delegates, for the Library, and for the public offices at the seat of government, two thousand dollars. For the payment of the postage of the Legislature, and of the public officers at the seat of government, four thousand dollars. For the salary of the Governor of this State, three thousand six hundred dollars. For the salary of the Secretary of State, one thousand dollars. For the salary of the Messenger to the Governor, four hundred and fifty dollars. For the contingent fund, provided for in the Constitution, to be placed at the disposal of the Executive, four thousand dollars. For the salary of the Comptroller of the Treasury Department, two thousand five hundred dollars. For the salary of the Clerk in the office of the Comptroller of the Treasury Department, one thousand dollars. For the expense of printing the annual report of the Comptroller of the Treasury Department, five hundred and fifty dollars. For the salary of the Treasurer of this State, two thousand five hundred dollars. For the salary of the Clerk in the office of the Treasurer, one thousand dollars. For the expense of account books, plates for the certificates of the public debt of this State, printing, and all necessary expenses for furnishing the Treasury Department, and for the preservation of the accounts, records, and papers thereof, one thousand two hundred dollars. For the salary of the Librarian, one thousand dollars. For the augmentation of the Library, pursuant to resolution number seventy-three, of December session, eighteen hundred and thirty-two, five hundred dollars. For binding books in the Library, six hundred dollars. For the expense of lights, of portorage and freights, of the purchase of stationery, of menial service, of advertising and printing, and other incidental expenses of the library, seven hundred dollars. For the salary of the Superintendent of the public buildings in the State House circle, fifty