

sons may be employed in selling as aforesaid, to be applied to the use of the State, and to be paid into the Treasury thereof by said clerk, who shall be entitled to receive for such services the same fees he receives for similar services under existing laws. CHAP. 139.

SEC. 2. And be it enacted, That the provisions of this act shall extend and apply only to such person or persons as shall bring goods, wares or merchandize, into said county, to sell at auction, within the limits aforementioned, and to such person or persons as shall sell at auction, goods, wares or merchandize, sent into said county, and within the limits aforementioned, for the express purpose of being sold upon commission. To whom provisions apply.

SEC. 3. And be it enacted, That any person or persons who shall sell as aforesaid, within the limits aforesaid, without having previously paid the license herein directed, shall be liable to a penalty of one hundred dollars, to be recovered by the State, for each and every such violation of the provisions of this act, in the same manner as debts of the same amount are recovered by law. Penalty for violation.

SEC. 4. And be it enacted, That this act shall take effect from and after the first day of July next. In force.

CHAPTER 139.

AN ACT to fix the per diem of the Judges of the Orphans' Court of Baltimore city, and of the Judges of the Orphans' Court of Baltimore county, pursuant to the seventeenth section of the fourth article of the Constitution. Passed May 11, 1852.

SECTION 1. Be it enacted by the General Assembly of Maryland, That each of the judges of the Orphans' court of Baltimore city, which court has been recently established by the constitution, shall be paid a per diem rate, for the time they are in session, of three dollars. Per diem.

SEC. 2. And be it enacted, That each of the judges of the Orphans' court of Baltimore county, which court has been recently established by the constitution, shall be paid a per diem rate, for the time they are in session, of two dollars, and each judge shall be paid five cents per mile mileage, for going to, and returning Per diem and mileage.