

CHAP. 159. applied by it for the promotion and encouragement of the commerce, trade and manufactures of the City of Baltimore; Provided, however, that the property to be held by the said corporation at any one time, shall not exceed, in clear annual value, the sum of thirty thousand dollars.

Proviso. SEC. 3. And be it enacted, That nothing herein contained, shall be so construed as to authorise said corporation to issue any note, token, scrip or device or other evidence of debt to be used as currency.

Banking forbidden. SEC. 4. And be it enacted, That this act shall have effect from and after its passage, and the General Assembly, may at any time, alter or repeal this act of incorporation.

In force.

CHAPTER 159.

Passed May 10, 1852. AN ACT for the Completion of the Unfinished Business on the Law Side of Baltimore County Court, sitting for City Business.

Causes transferred to court of Common Pleas. SECTION 1. Be it enacted by the General Assembly of Maryland, That all causes which were depending on the law side of Baltimore county court, sitting for city business, at the time of the qualification of the Judge of the Court of Common Pleas, and of the Judge of the Superior Court of Baltimore city, and, of which, the Court of Common Pleas would, under the constitution of this State, have had jurisdiction, had the same originated in the said court, shall be, and the same are hereby transferred to the Court of Common Pleas aforesaid; and that all the other causes which were depending on the law side of Baltimore county court, sitting for city business, at the time aforesaid, shall be and the same are hereby transferred to the Superior court of Baltimore city; and the said causes so as aforesaid transferred, shall stand in the respective courts to which they are transferred, in the state and condition in which they were in Baltimore county court aforesaid, at the time aforesaid, and shall be proceeded in, tried, determined, and conducted to final execution, according to the existing laws of this State, and the rules which the said courts respectively, have adopted or may hereafter adopt, in the same manner as if the said causes had originated in the said

Causes transferred to Superior court.

Causes so transferred to stand in the condition in which they were in Baltimore county court.