

CHAP. 160. the second section of this act, and all writs or other process which shall be necessary or proper to be issued, for the enforcement or execution, by attachment or otherwise however, of any judgment of Baltimore county court, sitting for city business, shall be issued out of the Superior court of Baltimore city, in like manner, and the like proceedings shall be had thereon, and shall be valid in law and have the same effect and operation as if the said judgments had been rendered in the Superior court of Baltimore city aforesaid.

Acts done to have same effect as if Baltimore county court had not been abolished.

SEC. 4. And be it enacted, That all writs of scire facias, and all other writs or process, which shall have been issued, out of either the Superior court of Baltimore city or the court of Common Pleas, before the passage of this act, on or for the enforcement or execution, by attachment or otherwise howsoever, of any judgment of Baltimore county court, sitting for city business, and every act or thing that shall have been done, or that shall be done, on or under such writ or process, shall be valid in law, and shall have the same effect and operation as if Baltimore county court had not been abolished, and such writ or process had issued thereout, and every such act or thing had been done under or by virtue of such writ or process so issued out of Baltimore county court.

CHAPTER 160.

Passed May 18, 1852. AN ACT Dispensing with ten Hoops on Barrels of Flour brought from other States.

SECTION 1. Be it enacted by the General Assembly of Maryland, That flour brought into this State from other States, shall be inspected, passed, and branded by the Inspectors of Flour, in the city of Baltimore, in like manner with the flour made in this State, notwithstanding the barrels from other States may not have ten hoops on them; Provided, that they have, at least, six broad hoops on each barrel.

Proviso.

SEC. 2. And be it enacted, That this act shall take effect from its passage.

In force.
