

of Livingston county, and State of New York, executor of the last will and testament of Charles Carroll, late of the same county and State, deceased, to James Reynolds, of Montgomery county, and State of Maryland, bearing date on the sixteenth day of October, eighteen hundred and forty-seven, and acknowledged on the twenty-sixth day of November, eighteen hundred and forty-seven, and which said acknowledgment was made in the State of New York, before two justices of the peace of said State of New York, instead of being made before a judge of a court of record, be, and the same is hereby ratified and made valid, and shall have the same effect (and no other) as if said acknowledgment to said deed had been made in conformity with the laws regulating acknowledgments of deeds executed out of the State of Maryland, and conveying lands within the State.

SEC. 2. And be it enacted, That this act shall take effect from the day of its passage.

CHAPTER 166.

AN ACT to cure a defect in the acknowledgment of a Deed from John Richardson and wife, of the State of Indiana, to Sidnum H. Mills, of Worcester county. Passed May 19, 1852.

SECTION 1. Be it enacted by the General Assembly of Maryland, That the acknowledgment of the deed executed by John Richardson and Elizabeth, his wife, of the State of Indiana, to Sydnum H. Mills, of Worcester county, in Maryland, and bearing date on the third day of August, in the year eighteen hundred and thirty-five, and which said acknowledgment was made before two justices of the peace of the State of Indiana, instead of before a judge of a court of record, be, and the same is hereby made valid, and shall have the same effect (and no other) as if the same had been made in conformity with the laws regulating the acknowledgment of deeds executed out of the State of Maryland, and conveying lands within the State.

SEC. 2. And be it enacted, That this act shall be in force from the day of its passage.