

branches of education as the trustees shall declare extra branches, such tuition fees as may be prescribed for the same; Provided, however, that it shall be competent for the trustees, in case the value of a scholarship shall be fixed at a greater sum than one hundred dollars, to determine the proportion of benefits to which those who have subscribed or shall subscribe, that sum shall be entitled. CHAP. 175.

SEC. 6. And be it enacted, That the present trustees, who have been chosen at a general meeting of the patrons, shall hold their office until the first Monday of October next, when, and every third year thereafter, on said day, (or such other day as may be fixed by the by-laws,) shall be chosen by the patrons or subscribers for scholarships, in such mode as shall be prescribed by the by-laws; a board of trustees to consist of fifteen patrons, ten of whom shall be members of the Evangelical Lutheran church, and five of these, regular ministers in said church, the residue of the board to consist of persons not belonging to that denomination; and that in voting for said trustees, each patron shall be entitled to one vote for every scholarship he may hold, and in all general meetings of the patrons for the transaction of business, each patron shall have a vote according to the foregoing ratio; Provided, that any one who does not hold a full scholarship, shall be allowed a vote during the period he may be enjoying or entitled to benefits in said Seminary. Trustees to be chosen by patrons or subscribers for scholarship. Proviso.

SEC. 7. And be it enacted, That the trustees shall choose from among their own body, a president, secretary and treasurer, whose respective duties and terms of service shall be prescribed by the by-laws; the treasurer to give bond for the faithful discharge of his duties in such penalty as may be prescribed by the by-laws, and with such sureties as the trustees shall approve, and be allowed such salary as they may determine; the trustees shall also have power to fill all vacancies that may occur in their body from death, resignation, removal, or any other cause, regard being had to the mode of constituting the board prescribed in the preceding section. Trustees to choose a president, secretary and treasurer. Trustees to fill vacancies.

SEC. 8. And be it enacted, That a majority of said trustees, including the president, shall constitute a quorum for the transaction of any business; and said trustees shall have power to select a site for said seminary, and to contract for the purchase of the same and the erection of the necessary buildings; to adopt a plan of the same; to appoint the principal of said seminary, and such professors and teachers as may from time to time Power of president and trustees.