

...ual permit to remain in said county, pursuant to the act of eighteen hundred and thirty-one, chapter one hundred and eighty-one.

he CHAP. 208.
wo to remain in county.

SEC. 6. And be it enacted, That this act shall take effect from and after the date of its passage.

ake In force.

CHAPTER 208.

A FURTHER Addition to an Act entitled, an Act to provide for the Instruction of Youth in Primary Schools, so far as the same relates to Kent county.

i Act Passed May
mary 11, 1852.
unity.

SECTION 1. Be it enacted by the General Assembly of Maryland, That an additional school district called number eight, in the third election district of Kent county, be, and the same is hereby established; and that it be so formed and laid out as to include the territory comprised within the following lines and boundaries, namely: beginning at a stone, standing on the main road leading from Centerville to Georgetown cross roads, it being a stone at the west end of the division line between the lands of the late William Miller and Richard Peacock, and running an east course until it reaches the little forest; then in a south-east direction to the main road leading from Georgetown cross roads to Millington, until it reaches the south line of the land formerly belonging to the late William Spearman, where it crosses the said road; then a west course, so as to include the lands of H. Smyth's heirs, and the land of the late Lancelot Moffit; then with said land, and a lane dividing said land from the land of Franklin Newnan and others, until it intersects the land of Col. Groome; then a north course, until it intersects the land of J. Wilson; then an east course, until it reaches the place ending.

embly Additional
school district
established.

Lines and boundaries.

SEC. 2. And be it enacted, That the taxable inhabitants, within the limits of said district, shall meet, as soon as practicable after the passage of this act, in some convenient place in said district, of which meeting proper notice shall be given, and elect five trustees to manage the concerns of said school district, and who shall have all the powers and privileges, and perform all the duties now required of trustees of similar schools; and

Five trustees
to manage
school district
to be elected.