

CHAP. 209. that all laws relating to primary schools in Kent county, shall be applicable to said school.

Authority to levy for benefit of school.

SEC. 3. And be it enacted, That the commissioners of Kent county, be empowered and required to levy upon the assessable property of the county, one hundred and fifty dollars, annually, for the benefit of said school.

CHAPTER 209.

Passed May 4, 1852. AN ACT authorising the Trustees of the Poor for Frederick county, to sell and convey certain real Estate in said county, of which, Daniel Runkles, an Idiot, died seized.

Authority to sell land, &c.

SECTION 1. Be it enacted by the General Assembly of Maryland, That the trustees of the poor, in and for Frederick county, be, and they are hereby authorised and empowered, after giving at least three weeks previous notice in some newspaper printed in said county, to sell, either at public or private sale, and on such terms as they may deem best, all the right, title and interest that a certain Daniel Runkles, an idiot, late of said county, deceased, had, of, in, and to a piece and parcel of land, lying, and being in Frederick county aforesaid, and known as parts of two tracts of land called Hammond's Contrivance, and the Resurvey, or Long Trused; and after deducting such expenses as they may deem reasonable in effecting said sale, to apply the balance of the proceeds, or so much as may be necessary to the payment of the claim due said county, for boarding, and taking care of said deceased idiot, and the surplus, if any, to pay over to any party or parties by law entitled thereto.

Power to convey by good and sufficient deed.

SEC. 2. And be it enacted, That the said trustees, be, and they are hereby authorised and empowered, on the payment of the whole purchase money for said interest, and not before, to convey, by good and sufficient deed, to the purchaser thereof, all the right, title and interest of the said Daniel Runkles, of, in, and to said real estate.

In force.

SEC. 3. And be it enacted, That this act shall take effect from the day of its passage.