

are ; that all chancery process shall be returnable, in the respective counties, to the common law terms aforesaid, as well as to the regular chancery terms ; and that said courts, as Chancery Courts, shall be considered as always open for the transaction of equity business.

SEC. 5. And be it enacted, That the trial terms of said courts for the cases depending in the same, shall be the terms next succeeding the terms to which the original process may be returnable.

SEC. 6. And be it enacted, That the provisions of this act shall take effect from and after the day of the passage thereof ; Provided, however, that at the July term, eighteen hundred and fifty-two, of the Circuit Court for Washington county, no jury shall be summoned, and no term shall be held, except for the return of process and the transaction of such business as may, by consent, be submitted to the court ; and this act shall not interfere with the term of the Circuit Court for Allegany county, now being held.

CHAPTER 215.

AN ACT to establish the terms of the Superior Court and of the Court of Common Pleas of Baltimore City, and to make valid the terms of said courts already held.

Passed May 13, 1852.

SECTION 1. Be it enacted by the General Assembly of Maryland, That after the first day of June next, the Superior Court of of Baltimore city, sitting for common law business, and the court of Common Pleas of Baltimore city, shall hold in each and every year, three terms, to commence as follows, viz : the first term on the second Monday of September; the second term on the second Monday of January, and the third term on the second Monday of May in each year.

Hold three terms.

SEC. 2. And be it enacted, That the terms prescribed for Baltimore County Court, as a court of equity, shall be, and the same are hereby declared to be and continued as the terms of the Superior Court of Baltimore city, sitting in equity.

Terms prescribed for Baltimore co. court, &c.

SEC. 3. And be it enacted, That the terms of the court of Common Pleas of Baltimore city, and of the Superior court of Baltimore city, whether sitting for common law business or in equity, which shall have been held or shall have commenced before the passage of this

Terms declared valid and legal.