

CHAP. 227. and the said court, and the judge thereof, out of court, are hereby vested with as full power, authority and jurisdiction, to pass and enforce all orders that may be required to bring any of said causes to a final hearing, determination or settlement, and to hear, try; and determine the same, as Baltimore county court, or any judge thereof, would have had, if said court had not been abolished.

Writs of subpoena, &c. made returnable to Superior court of Balt. city.

SEC. 2. And be it enacted, That all writs of subpoena, injunction, and all other writs or process, and all commissions and other proceedings which may have been heretofore issued out of, or made returnable to Baltimore county court, in any of the causes mentioned in the foregoing section, in case the same may have been served or executed, shall be returned; or in case the same may not have been served or executed, shall be served, proceeded with, executed and returned to the Superior court of Baltimore city, in the same manner as if the same had been issued out of, or made returnable to the said court.

Superior court may review, rehear, &c. decree of Baltimore county court.

SEC. 3. And be it enacted, That the said Superior court of Baltimore, or the judge thereof, may review, rehear, revise or enforce any decree or order heretofore passed by Baltimore county court as a court of equity, or any judge thereof, in any cause in which the land in controversy, or any part thereof, is situated within, or the defendant or defendants, or any of them, reside in the city of Baltimore, in as full and ample manner as Baltimore county court, or any judge thereof, might have done.

Proceedings valid.

SEC. 4. And be it enacted, That all decrees, orders and other proceedings of the Superior court of Baltimore city, or the judge thereof, made, passed or done, after the qualification of such judge, and before the passage of this act, are hereby confirmed, and are hereby made and declared to be as valid and effectual as if this act had been in force at the time of the qualification of such judge.

In force.

SEC. 5. And be it enacted, That this act shall be in force from the passage thereof.
