

SEC. 10. And be it enacted, That the said company shall be, and is hereby clothed and invested as respects the said road, with all and singular, the rights, privileges, immunities and advantages, not inconsistent with the provisions of this act, that are held, used and possessed by the several turnpike companies in this State, and shall be governed by the same regulations, and be subject to the same fines, penalties and restrictions, as the said companies now are, where the same are not inconsistent with the provisions of this act. CHAP. 237.
Rights and privileges.

SEC. 11. And be it enacted, That when the said road has been completed according to the provisions of this act, it shall and may be lawful for the company to erect one gate on said road, provided the same is as nearly equi distant from the termini as practicable, and to appoint such toll gatherers as they shall think proper, who are hereby authorised and empowered to collect and receive of, and from, all and every person and persons using the said road, the tolls and rates hereinafter mentioned, and to stop any person riding, leading or driving any horses, cattle, hogs, sheep, sulkey, chair, chaise, cart, waggon, sleigh, sled, or any other carriage, either of pleasure or burthen, from passing through said gate, until they have respectively paid the same, that is to say the following sums of money, and so in proportion for any greater or lesser number of sheep, hogs, cattle, to wit: for every score of sheep or hogs, five cents; for every score of cattle, eight cents; for every horse and his rider, or lead horse, two cents; for every chair or chaise, with one horse and two wheels, three cents; for every chariot, coach stage, waggon, phaeton, or chaise, with two horses and four wheels, six cents; for either of the carriages last mentioned, with four horses, eight cents; for every other carriage of pleasure, under whatsoever name it may be known, the like sums according to the number of wheels and horses drawing the same; for every cart whose wheels do not exceed the breadth of two and one-half inches, or less, with one horse, four cents, and one cent for every additional horse drawing the same; for every cart, the breadth of whose wheels shall be three and one half inches or more, with one horse, three cents, and one cent for every additional horse drawing the same; for every waggon of burthen, whose wheels shall be three inches or less, with one horse, five cents, and one cent for every additional horse drawing the same; for every waggon of burthen, whose wheels are three and one half inches or more, three cents, and one cent for every additional horse drawing the same; Provided, That no person shall be charged or compelled to Tollgate to be erected.
Rate of toll.