CHAPTER 268.

Passed May 26, 1852. AN ACT authorising the sale or lease of certain property, in the Eastern part of the City of Baltimore, belonging to the Society of Friends, or people called Quakers in the said city.

Preamble. WHEREAS, it is represented to this General Assembly, that a part of the lot of ground lying in the east side of Jones Falls, fronting on Canal, Fayette and Baltimore streets, vested in John C. Turner, Isaac Tyson, Junior, William Riley, John Brown and Joseph Matthews, as trustees, for the purpose of a burial ground, and meeting house, by said society of friends or Quakers, appointed by the respective meetings, agreeably to the act of December session eighteen hundred and twenty-one, is wholly unfit for the object intended, and that the said society of friends are desirous to sell or lease the same, and appropriate a portion of the proceeds, first to enclosing with a substantial wall or fence, that part of said lot in which interments have been made, and second, to purchasing and improving another burial ground out of the limits of the city, and the remaining portion to repairing the meeting house in old town, and grounds attached thereto, Therefore,

Authority to sell. SECTION 1. Be it enacted by the General Assembly of Maryland, That the trustees above named, be, and they are hereby authorised, to sell and convey in fee simple, or lease for ninety-nine years renewable forever, such part of said lot as is not used for burial purposes, in such lots, parcels or portions as to said trustees may seem advisable, and appropriate the proceeds to the purposes named in the foregoing preamble.

Rents reserved on leases. SEC. 2. And be it enacted, That the trustees above named, be, and they are hereby authorised, to sell and convey, the rents reserved on said leases, in case any leases should be made, and appropriate the proceeds for the purposes before mentioned.

Inconsistent acts repealed. SEC. 3. And be it enacted, That all laws inconsistent with or repugnant to the provisions of this act, be, and the same are hereby repealed, and that this act shall take effect from and after its passage.
