

CHAP. 46.

CHAPTER 45.

Passed March 4, 1852. AN ACT to refund to Emily Mactavish, Executrix of Mary Caton, late of Baltimore city, deceased, certain State Taxes erroneously paid by her.

Preamble.

WHEREAS, it appears that the estate of Mary Caton, late of Baltimore city, deceased, whereof Emily Mactavish is executrix, was composed, in part, of certain stock of the State of Maryland; and that in the year eighteen hundred and forty-eight, the State tax was deducted from the interest paid on said stock by the commissioner of loans; and it appears that in the same year, the said stock was erroneously included in the assessment made by the assessors of Baltimore city, and that the State tax, amounting to the sum of sixty-eight dollars and eighty-two cents, (less five per cent for prompt payment,) was paid on the assessed value of said stock, by the said executrix; Therefore,

Treasurer directed to pay.

SECTION 1. Be it enacted by the General Assembly of Maryland, That the Treasurer be, and he is hereby authorised and directed, upon the warrant of the Comptroller, to pay to Emily Mactavish, executrix of Mary Caton, late of Baltimore city, deceased, or her order, the sum of sixty-five dollars and thirty-eight cents, being the amount of State tax erroneously paid by said executrix.

In force.

SEC. 2. And be it enacted, That this act shall take effect from the date of its passage.

CHAPTER 46.

Passed March 2, 1852. AN ACT to regulate the time of holding the Circuit Courts in the Seventh Judicial Circuit.

Two terms.

SECTION 1. Be it enacted by the General Assembly of Maryland, That there shall be two terms of the Circuit Courts in each year, in the several counties composing the seventh Judicial Circuit.

When to commence.

SEC. 2. And be it enacted, That the terms of the Circuit Courts shall be held, and commence in each county within the seventh Judicial Circuit of this State, at the following places and times, to wit: at Denton, in Caroline County, on the second Monday of March