

the said board of commissioners shall be final in all cases submitted to said board. CHAP. 323.

SEC. 27. And be it enacted, That nothing in this act shall be construed to interfere with any lien law in force, or that may be hereafter enacted.

CHAPTER 323.

AN ACT to give Jurisdiction, out of Court, to the Judges of the Superior Court and of the Court of Common Pleas of Baltimore City and to Confirm their acts. Passed May 31, 1852.

SECTION 1. Be it enacted by the General Assembly of Maryland, That the judge of the Superior Court of Baltimore city, whether sitting in equity or for common law business, and the judge of the court of Common Pleas of Baltimore city, shall, within the limits of the jurisdiction conferred on the said courts respectively, have, use and exercise, out of court, all and singular the power, jurisdiction and authority that might or could have been used or exercised, and shall and may do and perform, out of court, all and singular, the acts judicial and official, that might have been done or performed, out of court, by any judge of the late Baltimore county court. Jurisdiction out of court.

SEC. 2. And be it enacted, That all the acts, judicial and official, which have been done or performed by either of the said judges, out of court, since their qualification as judges as aforesaid, be, and the same are hereby ratified and confirmed, and shall have the same validity and effect as if this act had been in force at the time of the qualification of the said judges. Acts confirmed.

SEC. 3. And be it enacted, That this act shall take effect from and after its passage. In force.