

CHAP. 330. point such officers and agents, and establish such by-laws and regulations, as they may think proper and expedient for the government of the corporation, and the management of its business, so that such by-laws and regulations shall not conflict with, or in any manner violate the constitution or laws of this State, or of the United States.

May purchase and hold personal and real estate. SEC. 6. And be it enacted, That said corporation may have and use a common seal, may purchase, hold and convey such personal and real estate, as may be required for the purpose of its creation, and may do all other acts necessary and proper to enable it to carry out legitimately the object of its incorporation, as expressed in the first section of this act.

Able and capable to sue and be sued. SEC. 7. And be it enacted, That said corporation, by its said name, shall have succession, and be able and capable to sue and be sued, to plead and be impleaded, in any court of law or equity.

In force. SEC. 8. And be it enacted, That this act shall take effect immediately upon its passage.

Reservation. SEC. 9. And be it enacted, That the Legislature hereby reserves to itself the right and power to alter, amend and repeal this act at pleasure.

CHAPTER 330.

Passed May 31, 1852, AN ACT making an additional Appropriation for the payment of the Compensation allowed to the members of the Senate, and House of Delegates, their officers and attendants, and for the Contingent Expenses of the General Assembly, and for Expenses incurred and to be incurred by the Commissioners, appointed in pursuance of a resolution of the present Legislature, in the matter of Archibald G. Ridgely.

Appropriation for the pay of members and officers of the General Assembly. SECTION 1. Be it enacted by the General Assembly of Maryland, That for the payment of the compensation, allowed by the constitution of this State and the laws thereof, to the members of the Senate and House of Delegates, their officers and attendants, and also, for the contingent expenses of the General Assembly, in addition to the sums already appropriated for