

the work, and for the insurance of the bridge for ten years, from the day of its completion. CHAP. 362.

SEC. 5. And be it enacted, That the commissioners aforesaid, or a majority of them, shall render to the county commissioners of their respective counties, at their meeting next after the expenditure of said money, a true, full and fair account of all money by them laid out and expended, by virtue of this act, in repairing or rebuilding said bridge, and that the said county commissioners, in their respective counties, shall make such compensation to said commissioners, as they in their judgment may think proper.

Commissioners to render a true and fair account of money expended.

SEC. 6. And be it enacted, That it shall be the duty of the commissioners to cause, so much of the timber of the present bridge, as may be found suitable for the purpose, to be used in repairing the same or building of the new; and all such timber of the present bridge, that may be found unsuitable, shall be exposed to sale, at ten days notice for cash, and the proceeds thereof applied to building or repairing, as the case may be.

Timber of present bridge to be used.

Unsuitable timber to be sold.

SEC. 7. And be it enacted, That if after repairing or rebuilding of said bridge, as aforesaid, there shall be any surplus of the sums to be levied on the respective counties, as aforesaid, in the hands of the commissioners, appointed by virtue of this act, it shall be the duty of the said commissioners, or a majority of them, to account for and pay over said surplus rateably and equally to the county commissioners of the respective counties, as aforesaid.

Surplus money.

SEC. 8. And be it enacted, That this act shall take effect from and after the date of its passage.

In force