

	Chap.	Sec.
ASSESSMENT—General assessment bill,	337
Baltimore city and the counties divided into assessment districts,	“	2
Assessors appointed,	“	3
Oaths of assessors prescribed,	“	4
Neglect to file oath considered a decli-
nation of office,	“	5
Vacancy filled by county commissioners,	“	“
Assessors to assemble on 15th June,	“	6
Assessors required to be present at valuation of all property,	“	7
Majority to determine valuation in case
of disagreement,	“	“ Forfeiture for neglecting to act as assessor after accepting appointment,	“	8
Duty of assessors prescribed,	“	9
Specification of property in return prescribed,	“	“
Owners of land to furnish information
of location, &c.,	“	10
Owners of slaves to give true account
of, number of, &c.,	“	11
Persons having property under their charge to furnish account of,	“	12
Masters of vessels to produce papers,	“	“
Forfeiture for refusal to render statement of property,	“	13
Abatement of taxes in case of removal
from one county to another,	“	14
Forfeiture for removal of property to escape assessment,	“	15
Owners may give value of personal property, except negroes on oath,	“	16
Stock of banks and other monied institutions, owned by non-residents, how
valued,	“	17
Stock of private corporations, held by
non-residents, how valued and collected,	“	18
Account of stock to be furnished under oath,	“	19
Assessors to enter upon duty on or before the 12th of July,	“	20
Assessments to be returned to county commissioners,	“	21
Separate returns for each election district,	“	22
Comptroller to send forms of returns
to several county clerks,	“	23