

Cumberland Coal and Iron company, now limited to four shall be increased to twelve. CHAP. 93.

SEC. 2. And be it further enacted, That all meetings of the stockholders of said company, may be held either at their place of business in Allegany county, Baltimore, Williamsport, or New York city, as the company may direct, instead of being confined at Cumberland alone; Provided, that whenever any such meeting shall be held at any place other than the place of business of said company in Allegany county, notice thereof shall be given, by advertisement inserted once a week for three weeks before the day of such meeting, in one or more newspapers published in Cumberland, and twice a week for three weeks before said day, in one or more daily newspapers published in the city of Baltimore. Place of meeting.

SEC. 3. And be it further enacted, That said Cumberland Coal and Iron company, may hold not exceeding twelve thousand acres of land, instead of being limited to five thousand acres of land. Proviso.

SEC. 4. And be it further enacted, That said company, be, and is hereby authorised to call in its present certificates of stock of the nominal value of five hundred dollars per share, and to issue, instead thereof, certificates of shares of stock of the nominal value of one hundred dollars per share, to the amount of the capital stock authorised by said act, so that in lieu of every original share, of the par value of every five hundred dollars, there shall be substituted five shares of stock of the par value of one hundred dollars each. Number of acres.

SEC. 5. And be it further enacted, That said company be, and is hereby further authorised and empowered, in lieu of constructing any such rail road, as is authorised in said act, or in addition to any such rail road, to purchase any existing rail roads in Allegany county, constructed by any other corporations, with the same rights, powers and franchises, in respect of any such railroads so to be purchased, as the said company has, or would have, in respect to any rail road that may or might be constructed by said company, under the provisions of its charter; Provided, that said company shall not construct or own more than one line of rail road through the gap at Wills' mountain, near Cumberland; and full right and privilege is hereby reserved to the citizens of this State, or any other company or companies, now, or hereafter to be incorporated under the authority of this State, to connect any other rail road or rail roads with the rail road or rail roads that may hereafter be constructed or purchased by the said Certificates of stock.

Authorised to purchase, in lieu of constructing, any existing rail road, in Allegany county.

Provisoes.