CHAPTER 107.

Passed March 9, 1852.

AN ACT to change the division line between the third and ninth election districts of Baltimore County.

Preamble.

WHEREAS, it would be promotive of the convenience of that portion of the voters of the third election district of Baltimore county, residing between the Falls turnpike road, and the Baltimore and Susquehanna rail road, from the city limits to the first crossing of the said roads, to have the division line between the said districts so changed, as to include them in the ninth election district, Therefore,

Division line designated.

SECTION 1. Be it enacted by the General Assembly of Maryland, That from and after the passage of this act, the Baltimore and Susquehanna rail road, shall form the division line between the third and ninth election districts, from the city limits to the first intersection of the above rail road, with the Falls turnpike road, and that all residents east of the said rail road, from the city limits northward to said intersection, shall be considered as belonging to the ninth election district of Baltimore county, instead of the third as heretofore.

In force.

SEC. 2. And be it enacted, That this act shall take effect from and after its passage.

Sec. 4. That it shall be the duty of the Secretary of State to make a short entry of the receipt of the evidence of qualification provided for in section
