

CHAP. 110. of the General Assembly of Maryland, to authorise the Chancellor to confirm said sale, if the same shall be for the benefit of the infants, parties to the cause aforesaid. Therefore,

Chancellor to confirm sale, if in his opinion it be for benefit of parties to the cause.

SECTION 1. Be it enacted by the General Assembly of Maryland, That upon the petition of Isaac Sterling, of Somerset county, to the Chancellor, to be filed in the cause in the Court of Chancery of Maryland, wherein Richard Odd and others are complainants, and Elizabeth Ford and others are defendants, the Chancellor shall determine whether or not the sale heretofore made by William S. Waters, trustee, named in the decree in said cause, to Isaac Sterling, of all the land of which Charles Ford and Margaret Ford died, seized, in Somerset county, was for the benefit and advantage of all the parties to the above cause; and if the said Chancellor shall be satisfied that such sale is for the advantage of the parties aforesaid, he shall confirm such sale, and shall order a deed to be given by said trustee to said Isaac Sterling, conveying to him, in fee, all the rights of the parties to said cause, of, in and to said lands.

In force.

SEC. 2. And be it enacted, That this act shall take effect from and after its passage.

CHAPTER 110.

Passed March 24, 1852.

AN ACT entitled, an Act to elect a Treasurer of Howard County by the People, and for the more prompt and economical Collection of the State and County Taxes in said County.

Treasurer elected by the people.

SECTION 1. Be it enacted by the General Assembly of Maryland, That the legal voters of Howard county shall, and they are hereby authorised and empowered, at the next general election, to be held in said county, for Delegates to the General Assembly, and every two years thereafter, to elect, by ballot, a Treasurer for said county, who shall act as clerk to the commissioners of said county for two years succeeding his election, and receive as compensation for his services as Treasurer and Clerk, such sums as the commissioners of Howard county, may deem reasonable and right, not exceeding five hundred dollars per annum.
