CHAPTER 104.

Passed
Mar. 8, 1854.

A SUPPLEMENT to an act entitled, an act to incorporate the Orphan House and Episcopal Free School of All Saints' Church, in Fredericktown, passed at December session, eighteen hundred and thirty-seven, chapter one hundred and forty-seven, authorising them to take apprentices.

Preamble.

WHEREAS, It is represented to this General Assembly, that the destitute female orphan children who are confided to the care and management of the ladies of All Saints' church, in Fredericktown, associated by the name of the Orphan House and Episcopal Free School Society of All Saints' church, in Fredericktown, for the benevolent purpose of rendering charitable aid as far as may be in their power, to destitute female orphans, are liable to be withdrawn from the protecting care of the said ladies, by the inconsiderate interference and influence of friends and connections, at such periods as may be prejudicial to the usefulness and happiness of the said children in after life; And whereas, it is manifest that those destitute orphan children who are, or may be placed under the care and protection of the said ladies associated as aforesaid, should remain under their care until such time as they may be prepared to maintain themselves by their own exertions; And whereas, it is manifest that the moral influence and benevolent plans of the trustees and Episcopal Free School Society of All Saints'
