

to keep a diary of the attendance and a list of the names of the children, and report the same to the orphans court, together with the number of months the school has been kept open, and the name of the individual they have employed as teacher.

Right of appeal.

SEC. 5. And be it enacted, That any persons deeming the amount of tuition assessed by the trustees too great, shall have the right of appeal to the three school commissioners living in their election district, and the decision of said commissioners shall be final.

Bills not paid to be placed in hands of collector.

SEC. 6. And be it enacted, That when any one who may be in arrears for tuition, shall neglect or refuse to pay, the trustees shall place bills for the same, regularly proven by the teacher, into the hands of the county collector, who shall collect the same, in the same manner that county taxes are collected, adding thereto six per cent., which six per cent. shall go to the collector, to compensate him for his trouble; and it shall be the duty of the collector to receipt for the tuition fees thus placed in his hands by the trustees, and for the collection and prompt payment of the same, his official bond shall be responsible.

Share of school fund.

SEC. 7. And be it enacted, That when the school district shall have been laid out, the trustees elected, the site obtained, the school house erected, and a qualified teacher employed in any of the school districts for at least six months, then the trustees of said school may call upon the orphans court of the county for their annual share of the school fund of said county, which shall not be less than two hundred dollars per annum, and if the funds at the disposal of the court will justify it, they may at their discretion increase the sum given to those schools that have a large attendance of pauper children, to any sum not exceeding three hundred dollars.

Duty of county commissioners.

SEC. 8. And be it enacted, That it shall be the duty of the county commissioners of Calvert county, to have collected and deposited annually in the Farmers' Bank of Maryland, at Annapolis, subject to the check of the orphans court of said county, seven hundred and fifty dollars, it being the interest arising from the money borrowed by the county from the primary school fund in December session, eighteen hundred and forty five, chapter fifty-eight.
