

CHAPTER 108.

Passed
Mar. 8, 1854.

AN ACT, to amend an act passed at January session eighteen hundred and fifty-two, chapter one hundred and seventy-five, entitled an act to incorporate a Literary Institution, at Hagerstown, in Washington county, to be styled the Hagerstown Female Seminary, so as to provide charges for instruction in the regular or ordinary course of studies to be paid by those holding scholarships and having pupils educated therein.

Preamble.

WHEREAS, by the fifth section of the act of the General Assembly of this State, passed at January session eighteen hundred and fifty-two, chapter one hundred and seventy-five, entitled an act to incorporate a Literary Institution at Hagerstown, in Washington county, to be styled the Hagerstown Female Seminary, it is provided that every subscriber for a scholarship in said Seminary, shall have the right and privilege of having educated in it one female pupil for each scholarship, he or she may hold, at all times and free of charge, in such studies as shall not be declared extra branches; and whereas, a large majority of the subscribers to scholarship in said Institution have petitioned this Legislature for an act to change said section, so that holders of scholarship, having pupils educated therein, in the regular or ordinary course of studies, (being such branches as shall not be declared extra branches,) shall be required to pay for such instruction such tuition fees as may be prescribed by the trustees from time to time, not exceeding fourteen dollars per annum.

Rights & privileges.

SECTION 1. Be it enacted by the General Assembly of Maryland, That every subscriber to a scholarship in said Seminary, shall have the right and privilege of having educated in it one female pupil for each scholarship, he or she may hold at all times, and in the regular or ordinary course of studies to be pursued in said Seminary by paying, in addition to the interest which his scholarship may yield, to the Treasurer or other proper officer of the institution, such tuition fees for the same as the trustees may fix upon and determine from time to time, not exceeding nine dollars per annum in the preparatory department, and fourteen dollars per annum in the collegiate department of said Seminary,
