

charged shall demand a jury trial, the said justice or said court shall certify said case to the criminal court of Baltimore, to be proceeded with and tried by said court, in the same manner as if the case had been originally brought before said court.

Fees.

SEC. 15. And be it enacted, That the justice of the peace, and the clerk of the criminal court, and register of wills of the orphans court aforesaid, respectively, shall receive the sum of twenty-five cents for issuing every warrant, and fifty cents for making out every commitment or indenture of apprenticeship under this act, and the constable, sheriff or police officer for serving said warrant, and bringing the person charged before either of said courts, or before said justice, shall receive the sum of fifty cents, and for carrying any person committed under this act to the place of commitment, the sum of fifty cents, which several sums shall be paid as other costs in criminal cases are now paid, but either of said courts, or said justice may at discretion adjudge that the said costs shall be paid by the informer, in cases where the person charged is acquitted.

Repealed.

SEC. 16. And be it enacted, That the act passed at December session, in the year eighteen hundred and four, chapter ninety-six, entitled, an act relating to vagrants in the city of Baltimore, by which certain penalties were inflicted in such cases, and which are more particularly and amply provided in the foregoing act, be and the same are hereby repealed.

CHAPTER 117.

Passed
Mar. 9, 1854.

AN ACT, to authorise the commissioners appointed by the act of eighteen hundred and fifty-two, chapter three hundred and twenty-four, to build a new court house in Dorchester county, to borrow a sum of money to furnish said house and enclose the ground.

Commissioners authorised borrow money.

SECTION I. Be it enacted by the General Assembly of Maryland, That the commissioners appointed by the act of eighteen hundred and fifty-two, chapter three hundred and twenty-four, to build a new court house in Dorchester county, be, and they are hereby