SECTION 1. Be it enacted by the General Assembly of Maryland, That whereas the eleventh section of said act limited the duration of said corporation to the year eighteen hundred and fifty-five, which will soon expire, the time and duration of said act of incorporation is hereby extended to the first day of January, eighteen hundred and eighty, and until the end of the next session of the General Assembly which shall happen thereafter.

SEC. 2. And be it enacted, That as several persons named in said original act as corporators have since deceased, and that Evan T. Ellicott and John Berry constitute the only survivors therein named, that William G. Krebs, George L. Harrison, N. Popplein, Christian Keener, John W. Ross, Samuel Fenly, Robert Howard, James G. Purvis, Benjamin F. Bennett and Isaac Tyson, Jr., be added to said surviving incorporators, and invested with all the powers, rights and privileges vested in said original corporators, and they are hereby created and made a corporation and body politic, by the name and style of the South Baltimore company, as fully set forth in the first section of said original act.

SEC. 3. And be it enacted, That the capital stock of the said corporation be divided into shares of twenty-five dollars each to any amount not exceeding twenty-five thousand shares; and that so much of section two of the original act as is inconsistent with this supplementary section be stricken out, and the above words inserted in their place.

SEC. 4. And be it enacted, That none of the rights or privileges appertaining to, or acquired by the original act, shall be forfeited by non user, but shall remain and continue in full force until the time limited by this supplementary act; and all provisions, alterations, or parts of sections inconsistent with the provisions and alterations made and signified herein, be, and the same are hereby repealed.

SEC. 5. And be it enacted, That nothing in this act shall be considered as interfering or preventing in any degree with the rights of inspection into the affairs of the corporation, as reserved by the Legislature in the twelfth section of the original act.
