Applicants. SEC. 2. And be it enacted, That from and after the second Monday of April next, the overseer of the poor shall have full power to receive any applicant for admission between the times of meeting of the said trustees, and at the first meeting thereafter the said applicants so admitted shall be heard.

Repealed.

SEC. 3. And be it enacted, That anything in the original act to which this is amendatory to a supplement to an act passed December session, eighteen hundred and thirty, chapter one hundred and fifty-one, relating to Kent county, which is contrary to or inconsistent with the provisions of this act, be, and the same is hereby repealed.

In force.

aome B

SEC. 4. And be it enacted. That this act shall take effect on the tenth day of April next. each adulta state individual sud, cur, con aucompetante as a recensive forces as a market respondent and a second the office of the comment in Williams out it there CHAPTER 128, in Alexander to this componer, the home of the first of the court

Passed Mar. 9, 1854

earto's all tenes of lines are who follows the second of the second AN ACT amendatory to the act entitled an act to incorporate the Mutual Fire Insurance company in Baltimore county, passed at December session, eighteen hundred and forty-nine, chapter two hundred and thirteen. strictions handofore mentioned.

Note to be given.

Mary A. 1988.

Battera

alidet all self

Outrol some missigners.

Section 1. Be it enacted by the General Assembly of Maryland, That any person making application for insurance on personal property in this company, and upon the application being granted or approved by the proper officer or officers, the applicant or applicants shall give his, her, or their note for the premium, and pay annually in advance the interest on said note or notes, as set forth in the by-laws of the company; and said note or evidence of debt so given shall be a lien on the real estate whereon the said personal property is located; Provided, however, the party applying is the owner of the real estate, in case the party applying for insurance is not a freeholder of the property upon which the personal property is located, and sought to be insured, the owner of said real estate may join with the party or parties in the note, and such note or evidence of debt upon being delivered to the company, shall be a lien on said real estate, as much so as if the insurance was for the freeholder's benefit and use.

Proviso.