

son seeing the same, to kill such dog, or if any dog shall have been known to worry sheep, and information thereof be given to the owner of such dog, if he or she does not kill or cause to be killed such dog, he or she shall make full compensation for all damage done by said dog, and any person seeing said dog or dogs running at large may lawfully kill the same.

SEC. 5. And be it enacted, That any money that may be in the treasury at the expiration of one year from the first levy under this act, and at the expiration of every year thereafter, over and above paying the damages sustained by said inhabitants in the loss of sheep by dogs, shall be by said treasurer, upon the warrant of said commissioners, paid to the judges of the orphans' court of said county, to be by them applied to the education of poor children in said county.

Surplus money—how to be applied.

SEC. 6. And be it enacted, That the said commissioners be, and they are hereby required to allow each collector the sum of ten cents per head for each dog returned, as provided for in the first section of this act, to be paid out of the fund arising from taxes on dogs.

Fee allowed collector.

SEC. 7. And be it enacted, That this act shall take effect from the date of its passage.

In force.

CHAPTER 130.

AN ACT for the relief of Mary Beard and daughter of Baltimore county.

Passed Mar. 9, 1854.

SECTION 1. Be it enacted by the General Assembly of Maryland, That the commissioners of Baltimore county, be, and they are hereby authorised if they in their judgment think it just and proper, to levy on the assessable property of Baltimore county, for the relief of Mary Beard and daughter, not exceeding the sum of forty dollars annually as long as they or either of them may require it for their support, to be placed in the hands of J. R. Moore for their special benefit.

Authority to levy.

SEC. 2. And be it enacted, That this act take effect from the date of its passage.

In force.