CHAPTER 144.

Passed
Mar. 9, 1854.

AN ACT to provide for the erection of a Court House and other appropriate public buildings in Baltimore county.

Preamble.

WHEREAS, By an act of the General Assembly of Maryland, passed on the thirtieth day of May, eighteen hundred and fifty-three, chapter four hundred and fifty-two, the voters of Baltimore county have selected Towsontown, in said county, the seat of justice for the same; And whereas, Henry B. Chew, Benjamin N. Payne and Grafton M. Bosley, have agreed to give for the erection of a court house and jail for said county, a lot of ground of not less than five acres, and to leave it to the county commissioners of said county, or to any other proper authority, to determine which of certain lots of five acres, each in said Towsontown or its vicinity, they will select for said purposes; Therefore,

Commissioners.

SECTION 1. Be it enacted by the General Assembly of Maryland, That Joseph D. Pope, Joshua Hutchins, Edward S. Myers, William Slater and Charles Timanns,
