

security to be approved by the court, or the judge thereof, if in recess, to satisfy any judgment that shall be recovered in such case against the defendant or defendants.

Sec. 5. And be it enacted, That so much of the act passed at November session of the year seventeen hundred and ninety-five, chapter fifty-six, entitled a supplement to the act, entitled an act directing the manner of suing out attachments in this province, and limiting the extent of them, as relates to the citizenships of plaintiff or defendant, or the defendants not being a citizen of this State, (as the case may be,) and also, so much thereof as requires any other averment in the oath of the plaintiff, as to the fact of the defendant's having absconded; than is set forth in the third section of this act; and that the preamble and first section of the act passed at December session of the year eighteen hundred and twenty-five, chapter one hundred and fourteen, entitled an additional supplement to the act, entitled an act directing the manner of suing out attachments in this province and limiting the extent of them, and the first and second sections of the act passed at December session of the year eighteen hundred and thirty-four, chapter seventy-nine, entitled a further supplement to the act entitled, an act directing the manner of suing out attachments in this province and limiting the extent of them, and the second and third sections of the act passed at December session of the year eighteen hundred and thirty-nine, chapter thirty-nine, entitled a further supplement to the act, entitled an act directing the manner of suing out attachments in this province and limiting the extent of them, be and the same are hereby repealed.

Acts repealed

Provision to what courts to apply

Passed Mar. 10, 1851

Right

Debtors' rights

Defendants

Absconding debtors

Provision

to take

Defendants to appear

Sec. 6. And be it enacted, That no attachment shall be dissolved unless every defendant appears to the court, and unless a bond be given, by or on behalf of the defendant or defendants, in a sum of money equal to the value of the property attached, with