

of the order or decree of the court of appeals, remanding the same as aforesaid, it shall be the duty of the keeper of the records or papers of the court of chancery, to transmit to the said superior court or circuit court, the original papers and proceedings in said cause, together with the copy of the decree or order of the court of appeals aforesaid, and a copy of the docket entries and of the bill of cost taxed in the cause and on the filing of said papers and proceedings in the said superior court or circuit court, as the case may be, such proceedings shall and may take place as would have been proper or necessary, in case the said cause had been remanded to the court of chancery and the said court had continued in existence, or as if the said cause had been originally instituted in the court to which the cause may be remanded as aforesaid.

In force.

SEC. 3. And be it enacted, That this act shall take effect from and after the tenth day of March, eighteen hundred and fifty-four.

CHAPTER 184.

Passed
Mar. 10, 1854.

AN ACT to incorporate the stockholders of the Chesapeake Pavilion company.

Incorporated.

SECTION 1. Be it enacted by the General Assembly of Maryland, That John Walton, Thomas Karney, Elihu S. Riley, John M. Davis and Richard Swann, their associates, successors and assigns, shall be, and they are hereby constituted a body politic and corporate, by the name and style of the Chesapeake Pavilion Company, and by that name shall have perpetual succession, and may sue and be sued, implead and be impleaded in all courts of law and equity, and may have a common seal, and the same may break, alter or renew at their pleasure, and the purpose, objects and business of said corporation shall be, and are hereby