

SEC. 3. And be it enacted, That the commissioners Levy of costs. of said county shall levy the costs necessary to carry out the provisions of this act, as other county charges are levied, and cause the said costs to be paid.

SEC. 4. And be it enacted, That this act shall be In force. in force and take effect from and after its passage.

CHAPTER 207.

AN ACT to incorporate the Highland Coal and Iron Company.

Passed
Mar. 10, 1854.

SECTION 1. Be it enacted by the General Assembly Incorporated. of Maryland, That James Percy, J. Philip Roman, John Swann and David Percy, and the owners of the shares of stock hereinafter authorised to be created, be, and they are hereby made a body corporate in law and in fact, by the name of the Highland Coal and Iron Company, and in that name, may purchase, have, hold, use and acquire by any lawful means, and may receive in donation or in trust, estate real, personal and mixed, and the same may sell, lease, let, transfer and convey or otherwise dispose of, and may sue and be sued, plead and be impleaded at law and in equity, and may have and use a common seal, and the same modify or change at pleasure, and may make by laws, rules and regulations for the better management of their affairs, the same being consistent with the constitution and laws of this State and of the United States.

SEC. 2. And be it enacted, That the management of Management; the said company shall be vested in a board of five directors one of whom shall be President to be selected by the stockholders in such manner as the by-laws may prescribe; and the said board shall have full power and authority in the name of the company to do all things which may be necessary and proper to be done by them as a company incorporated for the purpose of owning lands and mines, for improving, opening and working the same, to transport the growth and products of their lands and mines to market, and to execute and carry into effect the powers and privileges herein granted.