

SEC. 5. And be it enacted, That the primary school district which may be laid off and created under the provisions of this act, shall be included in the number of primary school districts of the county, and the orphans court and circuit court of the county shall exercise jurisdiction, management and control over said new school district, and shall extend to said school district all the benefits and advantages, and pay over to the trustees thereof such equal proportion or sum of money as such school district may be entitled to, upon the trustees thereof complying with the regulations and provisions applying to the trustees of other primary schools in the county, in the same manner and by the same means as if said new school district had been created under the former laws for the establishment of primary schools in Charles county.

Money to be distributed in equal proportion.

SEC. 6. And be it enacted, That this act shall take In force effect from the date of its passage.

CHAPTER 222.

A SUPPLEMENT to an act entitled, an act to incorporate the Howard Street Savings Bank, of Baltimore, and to the act supplementary thereto.

Passed Mar. 10, 1854;

SECTION 1. Be it enacted by the General Assembly of Maryland, That the Howard Street Savings Bank shall be known by the name and style of the Howard Bank, and shall under the name and style of the Howard Bank, have and enjoy all and singular the rights, powers, privileges and immunities which said bank might or could have held and enjoyed under or in the said name of the Howard Street Savings Bank by virtue of the original act incorporating the same, or of the act supplementary thereto, excepting, however, so much thereof as may by this act be altered or repealed.

Name & style;